++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rather cloudy with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle.

This Evening and Tonight:
A cloudy and damp evening for most with a band of light rain and drizzle gradually moving southeastwards across Wales, giving some hill fog over high ground. Rain will turn patchier overnight but persist until the morning. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Thursday:
A cloudy start with some outbreaks of light rain or drizzle. Becoming drier with sunny spells for the afternoon, but with a risk of showers in the northeast. Rain overnight. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Friday to Sunday, changeable with outbreaks of rain or showers, some of these heavy and possibly thundery, and drier, brighter interludes with some sunny spells.
